

Thrilled

Punchline

Look back on your past and smile
But don't let it cramp your style
So you weren't the chosen one
The way I see it is your time is yet to come
Don't make their opinions fact
Don't be and nostalgia act
Just live while you're still alive
So what if you're late? It doesn't mean you won't arrive
Taking steps is not a crime
You've been patient now's your time
Delirious ride through the night
Just a little further, drive drive drive

The thrill is going to get a hold of you
The thrill is gonna tell you what to do
There it lies in a deep dark corner
The thrill will be yours

Sometimes you ought to disappear
Drift off in the atmosphere
Step back from everyone and
Let your shadow eclipse the sun and
Make a move while you've got the chance and Ask your destiny to dance and
Cut a rug and paste it in the sky

The thrill is gonna get a hold of you
The thrill is gonna tell you what to do
There it lies in a deep dark corner
The thrill will be yours

The thrill is gonna get a hold of you
The thrill is going to untangle you
You come alive so keep on searching
The thrill will be yours

Hoooo

Heyya
Hey hey heyya
Hey hey heyya
If you wanna stay thrilled

Heyya
Hey hey heyya
Hey hey heyya
Follow the chills

The thrill is gonna get a hold of you
The thrill is gonna tell you what to do
There it lies in a deep dark corner
The thrill will be yours

The thrill is gonna get a hold of you
The thrill is going to untangle you
You come alive so keep on searching
The thrill will be yours
