

How To Live With Yourself

PUP

After all the years have crushed you into the ground
And you still think about all the times I broke your heart
That summer changed you, you came home somebody else
You couldn't face the truth, you couldn't even face yourself

Oh no, I barely miss you anymore
Never again will I let you mess with my head
And I won't
Oh, if you can't help it anymore
You can learn to live with yourself and cut the cord

After all the years have faded into the dark
And now I hardly even think about you anymore
And when I do, well I still can't believe
That you came back home, expecting that I wasn't over it
It felt good, I'll admit

Oh, I barely miss you anymore
Never again, don't wanna be insensitive but I don't
Oh, said you can't help it anymore
And it's killin' you
Just come on, I've lived with myself and you will too
