

Kill Something

PUP

I swear I'm breaking out of here
The things you want are still unclear
I'm sick of gnawing on these tired bones
While you cycle through the words I know

And if I've got nothing to prove
Why do I do the things I do?

I growl at the sadness that's been eating you
I watch you disappear, I don't know what I should do
When every little thing seems to set you off
I try to get you off the couch, drag you around the block

And if I've got nothing to prove
Why do I do the things I do?
I don't want to be locked up
Just want to kill something I love
Wouldn't that be enough?

I'm biting back
Growling with a grin
When everything you love comes caving in
Just want to kill something I love
(Over and over and over)
Just want to kill something I love
(Over and over and over)
Just want to kill something I love
(Over and over and over)
Just want to kill something I love
(Over and over and over)

And if I've got nothing to prove
Why do I do the things I do?
I don't want to be locked up
