J.B.

Take a dive when I ride high swift, quick to bust tricks feel the wicka-wicka-whiplash when I blast my boosters up two thirds more than the average car bought at your local toy store mega-fied maniac react tactical flatline your turbines in no time the winner within a world of beginners who talk bigger to none other than this top gun

Mr. Maloke:

splitmoves by my spywalk i spit grooves with my slytalk-huh
spinnin like tomahawk funk yes-you wanna get some beats to get blessed-you cant wait to get ya treat done-it sounded good to me the way you moved some..

nenever let me down better get inside-this puppet makes you ..it makes you wanna move.. it makes you shiver--extend it makes you groove!

Snuggles:

On a shortcut via duck, via the viaducts - ambush a postcoach, like robin hood and fryer tuck.
Buck-buck, duck! Catch up slow coach, turned up armed with buckteeth - highspeed super drive cd burners and snow tires, on my ride.
Lightspeed through the buckwheat, throttle to the floor i bottled them all - cut to the chase, mud in your face, split the race track in half, its off the cuff in the place!
