

Some people lie and believe
They'll never die
There is no value in youth
Unless it is wise and kind
As much as I am myself
This is a matter of wealth
Arrows of emeralds
Lead in our minds unfold

Lest we forget regret
This is temporal
All we have is our temperament

If I could, I would let you see through me (See through me)
Hold our skin over the light to hold the heat (Hold the heat)
Flood the halls with ruby insides till we spill
Wonder what it feels like?
If I could I would let you see through me

Moisture from their breath
Covers to bring our death
The warmth of their health hovers
To keep us unwell
Be well

Lest we forget regret
This is temporal
All we have is our temperament

If I could, I would let you see through me (See through me)
Hold our skin over the light to hold the heat (Hold the heat)
Flood the halls with ruby insides till we spill
Wonder what it feels like?
If I could I would let you see through me

If I could, I would let you see through me
If I could, I would let you see through me
Flood the halls with ruby insides till we spill
Wonder what it feels like?
If I could I would let you see through me
