

the long night

Purity Ring

Hold your hands out to me, touch a tender suffering
Hammering pulse fills an otherwise empty morning
I go running, running, world's a curse, get lost in Roads are yawning, stretch across me now

I've been blacking out, but I will come back changed
You recall the soul, and I'll recall the body
Soft feet searching on, a kind anger is lurking
I've been blacking out, but I will come back changed

Oh, the long night
Is a bruise upon me, move upon me
I was already lost
It doesn't answer to me, nothing hear me
Oh, the long night
Is a bruise upon me, move upon me
I was already lost
It doesn't answer to me, nothing hear me

Warm, defiant, lonely, shields to hold me, hold me
Spoken perfectly, my ringing ears
Play my dreams for omens, replay, searching, hoping Fevers oil me down then burn us out

I've been blacking out, but I will come back changed
You recall the soul, and I'll recall the body
Soft feet searching on, a kind anger is lurking
I've been blacking out, but I will come back changed

Oh, the long night
Is a bruise upon me, move upon me
I was already lost
It doesn't answer to me, nothing hear me
Oh, the long night
Is a bruise upon me, move upon me
I was already lost
It doesn't answer to me, nothing hear me

Oh, the long night
I was already lost
