

Nusantara (Land Of The Brave)

Putri Ariani

In the heart of Nusantara, where the oceans meet the sky
Brave souls rise, never going down
From the wealth of our forest, to beauty ocean shores
We all stand united, forever fighting more

Oh Nusantara, land of the brave
We are the champions, stronger together
Through every storm and in the darkest night
We'll rise together, shining bright

In the land of fertile, where the spirits never die
Flying up the sky, we got the line
We're born to win, the golden of the future
In this unity, stronger forever

Oh Nusantara, land of the brave
We are the champions, stronger together
Through every storm and in the darkest night
We'll rise together, shining bright

Oh Nusantara, land of the brave
We are the champions, stronger together
Through every storm and in the darkest night
We'll rise together, shining bright

Oh Nusantara, land of the brave
We are the champions, stronger together
Through every storm and in the darkest night
We'll rise together, shining bright
