

Sheepish

Putri Ariani

Hiding in the corner, I steal a glance
Heart beating fast, caught in a trance
Words on my lips, but they won't flow
Want to tell you everything, I can't

I'm the quiet one with love untold
Heart's a mystery, stories unfold
Longing to be close, but I stay apart
Lost in the rhythm of my sheepish

Laughing like friends, but I crave much more
In this silent, I want more
Every moment with you
Wishing some day you will know

I'm the quiet one with love untold
Heart's a mystery, stories unfold
Longing to be close, but I stay apart
Lost in the rhythm of my sheepish

Dreaming of the day when I'll break free
From these chains of doubt, just you and me
Me...

I'm the quiet one with love untold
Heart's a mystery, stories unfold
Longing to be close, but I stay apart
Lost in the rhythm of my sheepish
Though my words may fail to find their way
My love for you will never stray
For now, I'll keep my secret inside
Lost in the rhythm of my sheepish
