

EVERGREEN

PVRIS

I think I felt God strike me from the top
Humbled my ass real quick
I thought I had it all, but it went wrong
Felt like an acid trip
Bite my tongue, right my wrongs
But I don't wanna deal with it

Came to peace with my ego slipping I
Can't help feel like I'm a little alone
It's no use to try, what's the point if I
Still just feel like I'm a little alone?

'Cause no one gives a damn shit 'less you're dead
Or you're seventeen, a little born prodigy
Everyone could care less till you're dead
Or you're seventeen, I wanna be evergreen

I wanna feel God, show me what I got
And humble my ass real quick
I wanna see you fall, watching you crawl
When you go on an ego trip
'Cause I earned my stripes, I took my time
I'm jaded but I'm real with it
And I don't wanna deal with shit

Came to peace with my ego slipping I
Can't help feel like I'm a little alone

'Cause no one gives a damn shit 'less you're dead
Or you're seventeen, a little born prodigy
Everyone could care less till you're dead
Or you're seventeen, I wanna be evergreen
I don't care what they say 'bout me, yeah
I'm gonna be evergreen, gonna be evergreen
I don't care what they say about me 'cause
I'm gonna be evergreen, I'm gonna be evergreen

Green, green, green
Green, green, green

'Cause no one gives a damn shit less you're dead
Or you're seventeen, a little born prodigy
Everyone could care less till you're dead
Or you're seventeen, I wanna be evergreen
I don't care what they say 'bout me, yeah
I'm gonna be evergreen, gonna be evergreen
I don't care what they say about me 'cause
I'm gonna be evergreen, I'm gonna be evergreen
