

January Rain

PVRIS

Always forgive but I can't forget
I'm stuck in a moment
The stains on my bed
You made permanent
An unspoken omen
Fell from the high
Cried through the nights
But you didn't know it
The psychic was right
A beautiful lie
Lost in emotion

Always knew you would leave me dry
Wasn't ready to say goodbye

January rain, it never really goes away
Still remember how you taste
Somewhere in the bitter and the sweet dream
Do you think of me standing in a summer haze?
When we were gonna be okay?
Did I wash out in the January rain?

My eyes are red
The roses are dead
You know I still hold them
You're chasing me down
On my side of town
And now it feels stolen

Always knew you would leave me dry
Wasn't ready to say goodbye

January rain, it never really goes away
Still remember how you taste
Somewhere in the bitter and the sweet dream
Do you think of me standing in a summer haze?
When we were gonna be okay?
Did I wash out in the January rain?

Always wish we had one more night so I'd Think of you in a better light
Always knew you would leave me dry
Now I'm ready to say goodbye

January rain
It never really goes away

January rain, it never really goes away
Still remember how you taste
Somewhere in the bitter and the sweet dream
Do you think of me standing in a summer haze?
When we were gonna be okay?
Did I wash out in the January rain?
