

Loveless

PVRIS

Were you always heartless?
Did you learn it from your father?
The way you ran away from all this?
Was I just a target?
'Cause it's hitting me the hardest
Maybe this is what you wanted
Well, you got it

Every bit, every empty affection
Turned around to be used as a weapon
Even though I cut off all connection
Well I hope that you love this attention

I gave you tears when you wanted emotion
Said it was love so I cried out an ocean for you
You're probably fine now and not even hurting
You're free as a bird while I carry the burden for you

If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
Then I guess I'm loveless

Don't know what you call it
I shouldn't be nostalgic
For the way you ran away from all this
'Cause, babe, you don't deserve it
Finally time you heard it
You might be a loveless person
And you know it

Every bit, every empty affection
Turned around to be used as a weapon
Even though I cut off all connection
Well I hope that you love this attention

I gave you tears when you wanted emotion
Said it was love so I cried out an ocean for you
You're probably fine now and not even hurting
You're free as a bird while I carry the burden for you

If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
Then I guess I'm loveless

I gave you tears when you wanted emotion
Said it was love so

If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless

If this is what love is
Then I guess I'm loveless
Then I guess I'm loveless
Then I guess I'm loveless
