

Nightmare

PVRIS

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Now I'm a nightmare

Your grand entry was all a blur to me
I never saw your face just your energy
I think you buried me under hotel sheets
Then sent me to hell on a second-floor city street

I was having bad dreams, you ran away from me
Skeletons in your closet started breaking free
You said "Don't worry, babe, this time around I've changed"
You were my baby, but now you're my nightmare

Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare

On the ceiling, I'm looking down on you
Getting high off them, but you don't want to Am I on your mind? Don't you deny it
Good luck on the West Coast
I don't think you'll find it

Fuck your California dreams, get away from me
Said you hated the city, but I don't believe
Call me up someday when you're not high off your face
And I'll be your baby, but now I'm your nightmare

Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare

California dreams
Look what you did to me
Oh, I can never sleep

Fuck your California dreams, get away from me
Said you hated the city, but I don't believe
Call me up someday when you're not high off your face
And I'll be your baby, but now I'm your nightmare

Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare
Now I'm a-
Now I'm a nightmare

California dreams
Look what you did to me
Now I'm a nightmare
California dreams
Look what you did to me
