

Sacrificial

PVRIS

Only in the dark, I
See it in a true light
Baby, you could be my downfall
End of my life
Mission's not right
Maybe I don't see him, maybe I'm blind
We made a deal with the devil
But we're doing fine

I feel it all the time
The heavy weight of your love
I'd put it on the line
I would give it up

I know now
Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial
Like, oh wow
Baby, we're competing with a sacrifice

Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial

I think it's a sure sign
We should be running with the divine
Baby, we could reach the heavens
Or dance in hellfire
And if they say it's alright
I don't wanna see you, wanna stay blind
'Cause you feel like an angel
And we're doing fine

I feel it all the time
The heavy weight of your love
I'd put it on the line
I would give it right up

I know now
Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial
Like, oh wow
Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial

Like, oh wow (Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial)
(Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial)
Baby, we're competing with a sacrifice

Baby, it's official, this is sacrificial
Like, oh wow
Like, oh wow
Baby, we're competing with a sacrifice

Baby, we're competing with a sacrifice
