

Separate

PVRIS

Clouded sheets of glass behind hazel eyes
Stand in front of my sights blurring my life.
And it pulls away the world from me but I don't mind.
As long as it won't separate you from me I'll be fine.

There's always been a disconnect
Running from my heart to my head
And no it's never made much sense.
I've been feeling so distant,
Can you be the one to connect?
Pick up all the pieces again?

Pull away the world from me,
I don't mind.
As long as they don't separate you from me
I'll be fine.

Little mirrors at your bedside look just my size.
Place them back behind my eyes, give them life.
Nerves on fire, your hand in mine,
I wouldn't mind if I died.
I'm by your side,
Tonight I'll give you my life.

There's always been a disconnect
Running from my heart to my head
And no it's never made much sense.
I'm still feeling so distant,
Can you be the one to connect?
Pick up all the pieces again?

Pull away the world from me,
I don't mind.
As long as they don't separate you from me
I'll be fine.
