

Because my body isn't adorned
What made you love me anymore
I retract my devotion now
Though I'm not quite sure how

Because my body is just a mess
I get your feelings I guess
You know I think it's just a dress
It causes all of your distress

Because my heart don't love no one
I don't either
But baby love me still

Because my heart don't love no one
I don't either
But baby love me still

Because my body is a disgrace
I won't look myself in the face
You know I'm sorry I'm such an eyesore
I won't love myself
