Silly

PWR BTTM

I can not sit still
Never have and never will
Always running like a kid
So afraid of what I did

Always ringing like a bell
So afraid to try and yell
I find quiet oh so strange
I love you too much I'm afraid

Was I silly to love you with the force of my heart
When that's queer and alive and so sad from the start
Silly to think that you would ever change

Was I silly to love you with the force of my heart
When that's queer and alive and so sad from the start
Silly to think that you would ever change

Silly to think you'd change
Gotta hope that I change
Silly to think you'd change
