

Won't

PWR BTTM

I won't say that you're selfish
I won't say that you are unkind
I won't say that you're helpless
I won't say that you didn't try
I won't say that you're evil
I won't say that you are alright
I won't say you're deceitful
I won't say that you're on my mind

Take pity upon me, I know honesty is a virtue
Take pity upon me, I won't lie if it will hurt you

I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you

Take pity upon me, I know honesty is a virtue
Take pity upon me, I won't lie if it will hurt you
But my god, life's real all the time, woah

I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
I won't say I don't love you
