Castle of desire - With blood-drunken choirs Songs of sorrow - Resound through the halls

The thoughts of lust - Remain in my brain
The feelings I get - From the towers of hate
Castle of desire - With blood-drunken choirs
Songs of sorrow - Resound through the halls

Hopeless madness to burial oblivion A slave to darkness, again

Burn in the fire of lust - So strong
It's so hot, cold, a delivery of my soul
Blasphemy

It's the fire that keeps me warm Holds me tight and burns me right It's the fire that burns in me

Still burn in fire ! It's my still burnin' fire

It's the fire that keeps me warm Holds me tight and burns me right It's the fire that burns in me

Whispers - I try to understand them Living in a world of visions I think I'm dying Sadness - This is my price For all the sins I've done to you

Majesty crown - Allowed to speak black Serenades with crimson decades Change the face - With the mask of pain Special dreams - The shadow-hunt returns Come on to the arrival of this hungry flame Irreverent is her name It's my knocking, calling, burning chest Delivery of the bestialized haircrest

It's the fire that keeps me warm Holds me tight and burns me right It's the fire that burns in me

Still burn in fire ! It's my still burnin' fire

It's the fire that keeps me warm Holds me tight and burns me right It's the fire that burns in me

Whispers - I try to understand them Living in a world of visions I thinkI'm dying Sadness - This is my price For all the sins I've done to you
