

When desperate feelings call out your name
Games are lost and no one's to blame
Your self esteem's in decline

Rest assured
You're about to learn
Why your world might take a turn

Entwined by the secrets of delight
This lifelong alliance shines tonight

(So stay)
Invisible forces wrap me in (Just stay)
The feeling of anguish has been

Rage and fury's controlling your mind, oh
Small misfortunes are making you blind
Sometimes things are not what they seem, oh

You've been blessed by much stronger genes
Put your strengths into better schemes

Entwined by the secrets of delight
This lifelong alliance shines tonight

(Hold on)
Somehow this madness fades away
(Hold on)
You're leading my darkness astray

If only our lifetime was forever
I'd never ask for anything more
But our spirits may live for a thousand years
And return for more

Entwined by the secrets of delight
This lifelong alliance is tight
We're bound by this mutual energy
A stronghold of you and me

(We'll go on)
Nothing can change the way we feel
(Go on)
No one can tear us apart
(Go on)
Nothing can change the way we feel (the way we feel)
