

Broken Arrow

Pyramaze

I run from your arms
I fall as I fall apart
I fight my way back as I might be breaking the law

You're not a stranger to me
You try to pull me back but I
I want it all but I need more

I'm like a broken arrow
I don't know where I end or I begin
I'm heading for a war that I can't win
I fight for the right side
Still I'm losing pace and time
I get if it's on me
But I'm just finding ways to feel alive

(Ring the alarm)

I ring the alarm
I've woken the voices, oh
It's in me, I'm fighting
And I might be falling apart

You're not a stranger to me
You try to pull me back but I
I want it all but I need more

I'm like a broken arrow
I don't know where I end or I begin
I'm heading for a war that I can't win
I fight for the right side
Still I'm losing pace and time
I get if it's on me
But I'm just finding ways to feel alive

Tell me if you really need
The falling of your enemies
Tell me if you really need me

I'm like a broken arrow
I don't know where I end or I begin
I'm heading for a war that I can't win
I fight for the right side
Still I'm losing pace and time
I get if it's on me
But I'm just finding ways to feel alive
But I'm just finding ways to feel alive
