

Indestructible

Pyramaze

I sit and wonder I fall apart and cry
You're pulling me under holding me down a while
No one is telling me why
No one is trying to fight
This time I tell you

I'm gonna hunt through the night
I'm gonna hunt through the night

I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are inde-, we are inde-
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are indestructible in life

Tell me are we changing faces?
Hiding in our pleasant places
No one is telling me why
No one is trying to fight
This time I tell you

I'm gonna hunt through the night
I'm gonna hunt through the night

I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are inde-, we are inde-
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are indestructible in life
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are inde-, we are inde-
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are indestructible in life

Indestructible is what we are
Indestructible is what we are
Is what we are

I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are inde-, we are inde-
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are indestructible in life
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are inde-, we are inde-
I don't know what we're fighting for
Why we try to die so young
When we are indestructible in life
