

I Don't Want to Love You Anymore

Q Lazzarus

Every time I see your face, it's when you're walking out the door

You made the biggest mistake, I don't wanna know you anymore
I've been thinking of all the changes that you put me through

I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't wanna hold you anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna, I don't wanna, woah, woah
I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't wanna hold you anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna, I don't wanna, woah, woah

All the pain and abuse was so wrong, but it made me strong
You need a good slap in your face, when you find it's not, I'll be gone
And then a trick, she called me this morning, she said she had your baby

I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't wanna hold you anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna, I don't wanna, woah, woah
I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't wanna hold you anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna, I don't wanna, woah, woah

Oh, oh
You must think that I'm real stupid, oh boy, let me tell you, I know
When you're out at night real late, boy, let me tell you, I'm writing it all down

I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't wanna hold you anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna, I don't wanna, woah, woah
I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't wanna hold you anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna, I don't wanna, woah, woah

You took away my heart, you took away my soul, you took away my joy and you hurt me so bad
Baby, you took away my love, you took it away my soul and you turn around, you turned around and twisted, turned it bad
Love, you see
I don't wanna love you anymore
I don't want you anymore
I don't love you anymore

Ooh, oh
