Q

Chk, chk, chk, ow

Love is gone around and I question why
Did things just go away? You took the sky
I guess we're changin' up, that's what life's about
My hips and I won't grip to figure it out

That's for growin' up and we don't know what to do
But I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Ooh, times are changin', life is movin' stuff right out the blue
But I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Yes, I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you

I'm in this house alone and I question why
Do I deserve to pay livin' in alibi?
Yes, we made mistakes but we just heal
Ooh, now I'm just rollin' with these little tears

That's for growin' up and we don't know what to do
But I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Ooh, times are changin', life is movin' stuff right out the blue
But I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Yes, I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you

Now that we go
We're runnin', runnin' from the choice to be
And then we go
We're struttin', struttin' forward to better days
But when you stop
Runnin', ooh
Yes, I'll be here for you, always around
I'll be runnin', runnin' just to see you, ooh
Chk, chk, chk, ow

That's for growin' up and we don't know what to do
But I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Ooh, times are changin', life is movin' stuff right out the blue
But I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Yes, I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Yes, I won't forget the times when I felt the love from you
Yes, I won't

Ooh
Ow
Ow
Goodbye
