

Everyday

Q

It doesn't matter what you do, I will love you anyways
Through all your pain and tears, I love you anyways
Don't matter what you say, I love you anyways
I love you anyways, oh, I love you anyways
You dance, could fall on me, I will catch 'em everyday
The clarity you seek, I pray for everyday
The quality of our time, I dream within my heart
I love you everyday, and I will love you anyways
Oh, I loved you anyways, yeah, I loved you everyday
Ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh

It don't matter where you go, I will love you everyday
Don't matter how far you run, I love you everyday
I will love you everyday, I will love you everyday
Ooh, I love you everyday, I will love you everyday
Ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh

Is there something you should ask?
It seems I claim to me
The mother in your heart
A flower sent to me
Ooh-ooh-ooh
We will fall
Ooh
I love you everyday, ooh, I love you everyday
I love you everyday

It don't matter where you go, I will love you everyday
It don't matter what you do, I will love you anyways
Don't matter how far or wide, we'll sleep between the lines
'Cause your heart hit something similar and it's lookin' just l ike mine
Ooh, it don't matter what you do, I will love you everyday
It don't matter where you go, I will love you everyday
My heart goes soft for you, I just sleep between the lines
The heart I have for you it will song above the skies

Love you everyday, ooh, I love you everyday
Love you everyday, ooh, love you everyday
Love you everyday, ooh, love you everyday
If I don't ever see you again, I will love you anyways
Aw, you know I love you, I hope I can see you again
