

THE HIDE

Q

Who told you, you had to hide
That ain't right
What's inside

The hide
The hide
You must wonder why
I tried to hide
The hide
Wonder why
I tried to hide
Don't mess up the hide

Don't mess up the hide hide hide hide hide hide
Don't mess up the hide hide hide hide hide hide
Don't mess up the hide
I tried to hide
I wonder why
I tried to cry
I never would
I wish I could
I would've died
Follow the hide

It's pouring
And every single thought has been soaring
You could see it in my eyes I've been
Pouring out, without a doubt
Every single thing has been showing
Now I'm hiding
I don't want no one to see me like this
And I don't want no one to want to be like this
So I stay alone, all by myself
I don't know anymore

Welcome to the hide
Where we reside
Where no one wants to face 'bout the moment in time
I know it's been long
But we just need to have some time to ourselves to heal now
Now I told you how everything went down from way before
I don't need to hide
But I just wanna fly
The voices going by
Tonight, I know
I don't need to hide

Hide hide hide hide hide hide
Don't mess up the hide hide hide hide hide hide
Don't mess up the hide
I tried to hide
I wonder why
I tried cry
I never would
I wish I could
I would've died

See the mind been running wild
Going through the streets
One thing at a time makes a spirit of destiny
Now my eyes are falling out
I don't know what to see
The sun is setting down and before I'm tryna be
I wanna feel the rapture coming over me
A voice that tried to hold me had no choice but up and leave
Now it's time to boogie down, down down down
Do you hear the sound, sound sound sound

Welcome to the hide
Now I told you how everything went down from way before
I don't need to hide
But I just wanna fly
Tonight, I know
I don't need to hide
