

You ain't give me a purpose
To better up myself so
Show me that you're worth it
Girl, you know it's the start of fall
Cuffing season is coming up
And I ain't tryna fall
Its been a couple years since I bundled up
Sorry for these games
I ain't tryna go back to these simple things again
Tryna find the one for me that makes me feel alright
Prays with me and stays with me through thick and thin alright
I hope it's you

I wanna choose you
Tell me, why should I choose you?
I know that you not perfect
Right now I see you worth it
Mm, I wanna choose you
Tell me why I should choose you?
Show me that you are worth it
I know that we not perfect but
I wanna choose you
I wanna choose you
Right now, girl, I wanna choose you
I wanna choose you
Right now, girl, I wanna choose you
Right now, girl, I wanna choose you
Girl, it's all you
