

Her

QoryGore

It's her
You're no longer my babygirl
I gotta keep moving on
Don't look back 'cause I'll be gone
One thing that never changes
That it's her
You're no longer my babygirl
I gotta keep moving on
Don't look back 'cause I'll be gone
One thing that never changes
That it's her

Uh, there's no temporary love
In the beginning and you should know
Who's guide you
And call you every night
When you say ride, I ride
How the fuck did you switch up

Uh, there's no temporary love
You told me that I shouldn't worry about that boy
Okay go play with your toys
But then you just play with me
Teasin' me
How the fuck did you switch up

(When I fall for you)
Cuz sometimes I know you're different
Bed feels so good when you come back
Make us float like a jetpack
(Quicker than I should have)
(Why you won't tell me the truth)
That your feeling has faded
I'm the one you hated
But you always had me naked

(When I fall for you)
Cuz sometimes I know you're different
Bed feels so good when you come back
Make us float like a jetpack
(Quicker than I should have)
(Why you won't tell me the truth)
That your feeling has faded
I'm the one you hated
But you always had me naked

It's her
You're no longer my babygirl
I gotta keep moving on
Don't look back 'cause I'll be gone
One thing that never changes
That it's her
You're no longer my babygirl
I gotta keep moving on
Don't look back 'cause I'll be gone
One thing that never changes
That it's her

There's no temporary love
Deep in my thoughts I'm going crazy
I just can't describe
I won't let drama kill my vibe

There's no temporary love
Cause when we fight
You always think that you were right
And that's enough
I won't let drama kill my vibe

(When I fall for you)
Cuz sometimes I know you're different
Bed feels so good when you come back
Make us float like a jetpack
(Quicker than I should have)
(Why you won't tell me the truth)
That your feeling has faded
I'm the one you hated
But you always had me naked

(When I fall for you)
Cuz sometimes I know you're different
Bed feels so good when you come back
Make us float like a jetpack
(Quicker than I should have)
(Why you won't tell me the truth)
That your feeling has faded
I'm the one you hated
But you always had me naked

It's her
You're no longer my babygirl
I gotta keep moving on
Don't look back 'cause I'll be gone
One thing that never changes
That it's her
(Lot of bullshit, it's her)
(Never commit, it's her)
You're no longer my babygirl (Right now she ain't, ain't my babygirl)
I gotta keep moving on (Bitches turn back banging on my line)
Don't look back 'cause I'll be gone (They know when daddy is online)
One thing that never changes (Daddy is online, yeah yeah)
That it's her

Daddy is online, yeah yeah
Daddy is online, how bout now
Daddy is online, yeah yeah
How bout now, QG is online
