

Rebound

QoryGore

I haven't been myself lately
Are you tryin' to playing games with me?

You know I got a long list
Of women but they ain't exist
Cause I chose to grant your wish
And that's fine
Guess it's not the first time
Give me some time to unwind
I ain't your rebound

Still take my time for you
I don't know what to do
Are you tryin' to playing games with me?

But that's fine
I'll take the risk
I'd slit my wrist
You need a kiss
I'll take my key to start the engine and come over
Guess it's not the first time
Give me some time to unwind
I ain't your rebound

I used to know how to love
But after what you've done
I don't know what it feels like
I used to know how to love
I got busy from Sun to Sun
But you'd still find someone to have fun
Leave me, let me be on the top

When the dawn comes
You always come back
Knocking at my door
Call me when you're sober
Does it make you feel better
Careful what you take

Your desire
Not even your wildest dream
Don't come beg to me
Cause you ended up with him
I don't know why
There's no one to blame

I set to charge my phone
And go to bed
But my mind takes me back
On the edge
It starts to reminisce
I can't tell the difference
Is it a curse or a bliss

I don't want to wake up no more
She'll be knocking at my door
I just want to ignore

But she keeps ringing

At the end I let her in

But

You know I got a long list

Of women but they ain't exist

Cause I chose to grant your wish

And that's fine

Guess it's not the first time

Give me some time to unwind

I ain't your rebound

I used to know how to love

I don't know what it feels like...
