

Alone Together

Quadeca

Walk with me further apart
Follow me into the dark
(Dark)

Memories ain't the same when by your side
Take my lips, leave me tongue-tied
Drift-drift away you're a memory
I'll only exist if you remember me
I'll only exist if you remember me
You are not in love, you just pretend to be
Drift-drift away you're a memory
Drift-drift away you're a
I guess I'm alone, I'll be alone forever, yeah
Together alone, I guess we're alone together, yeah

I think I strained all the voices inside my head
They gon' need some recovery time
I feel bad for 'em 'cause they got stuck in my mind
I can't blame them for not tryna comfort me
I'm in the wrong line of work
Yeah, it's been a long line, I've spent a long time
But I cannot try to search
Because if I lose my spot, I will have to walk by
All of the rocks I left unturned
And you gon' tell me I was wrong and never learned
So, if I'm melted, you gon' watch and let me burn
I know you hear a lot of talk, but rest-assured
I'ma dress all my problems in Gucci and Prada
And tell 'em they can all do what they want to
And if you say I'm not being for real
You the king of lying, no Hakuna Matata, ooh, ooh
I just spent a couple days
Watching dust fly from one vase to another vase
I wish I was in another place
Life's a treadmill, think you work out but, you see you're still stuck in place
Still running
I'm still dwelling on the dumb mistakes
I still don't even know what it takes
I already got enough at stake, but, yeah

Memories ain't the same when by your side
Take my lips, leave me tongue-tied
Drift-drift away you're a memory
I'll only exist if you remember me
I'll only exist if you remember me
You are not in love, you just pretend to be
Drift-drift away you're a memory
Drift-drift away you're a
I guess I'm alone, I'll be alone forever, yeah
Together alone, I guess we're alone together, yeah
