

Cause He Has One

Quadeca

Hate a motherfucker with a dream 'cause he has one
Just because he gave up doesn't mean I'm a back-up
Feel like all my good times get replaced by the bad ones

Yeah, they wanna hate a motherfucker with a dream 'cause he has one

They wanna doubt a motherfucker with a dream?
Looking to the stars for some money and a scheme
Look at all the cars and the hundreds in a green
Serpents told you knowing is like nothing's as it seems
Goddamn, I guess I really thought he was the man
I guess I really I thought he had some fans
But that shit is all a sham
All the cash he stocked was from a scam
All the views he got was from some spam
I've been living like, man
Why he ain't doing what he can
Why he ain't just sticking to the plan
How has he been living with no limits, getting millions by the minute
I don't get it I don't really understand
I've been living like, damn
He ain't getting money by the gram
I'll do better if I study my exams
Do I really wanna stand, next to all these average fucking sad doves?
So I hate this motherfucker with a dream 'cause he has one

Hate a motherfucker with a dream 'cause he has one
Just because he gave up doesn't mean I'm a back-up
Feel like all my good times get replaced by the bad ones

Hate a motherfucker with a dream 'cause he - 'cause he's been living this passion
I'm just gonna sit and imagine
I've got a bitch on my lap and she listen to rap
She really be digging my track
I'm like snap, that shit is invisible now
I'm a original now
I'm making minimum wage
These are literal aides I need to figure this out
How did I get to the stage?
I wanna get up on stage
Do this shit everyday and I'm not gonna care whatever they say
Let them all pester away
But I just can't shoot my shot, got a bad gun
So I hate this motherfucker with a dream 'cause he has one
Fuck it, hate this motherfucker with a dream 'cause he has one
