

I want you cause you're easier than nothing baby
I want you cause you're easier than nothing
Show me your vision of hell
You shouldn't go by yourself
But oh my God
Maybe I'm not in love
It's just the thought of you
But sometimes it's not enough
Okay it's hard to explain
Maybe I'm so in love
I followed the open arms
That buried me from above

And you said it would be okay
Cause I want you when you're easier than nothing baby
Ah
I want you when you're easier than nothing

Throw all your cents in the well
I couldn't counter your hell
But oh my God
Totaled my car on the way
It's my fault I'm not over the thought of you
And for everything I gotta say
It so hard to admit that I wanted you
I was busy being busy
I was busy doing everything in my strength not to acknowledge y ou
I miss being alone, the way I was alone
Before all the resentment had gotten through Operate at my prettiest
I'm taking flights when I'm bored
Shoot my shot like an idiot
She don't know what my motive is
I said "I'm just here to listen to you yeah that's really it"
But it's fine, I feel the same way
I'll deliver it to you the same day
And I took off just to say hey
I think I want you cause you're easy

I want you cause you're easier than nothing, baby
I want you cause you're easier than nothing
I want you cause you're easier than nothing, baby
I want you cause you're easier
