FIFA IS DEAD

Quadeca

FIFA is dead, man, rest in peace
The death of FIFA is the death of me
Price caps and coin sellers was the enemy
But it's too late to go back to what it's meant to be

At the start of FIFA 15, the card design was neat-lookin'
FIFA YouTube growin' fast, I would keep cookin'
Keep hookin' up collabs, videos were bangin'
Gettin' Ronaldo and Messi was somethin' so amazin'
But people started fakin' and fakin', the packs we're playin'
Makin' every pack opening ever the world's greatest
And I hated it, debated it, decided I'd stay away from it
But people kept on doin' it, it started to get dangerous
To the point where entertainment and morals have been mistaken
All legitimacy was overtaken
But it is a grind, and it's always been from day one
I wish we had that FIFA 12 community I came from
But things involvin' things change so fast
Remember when pink slips had just made a splash
And the biggest way to grow was through a wager match?
Remember when PES packs were the main attraction?
Like, damn! But that is the beauty in YouTube
Some trends end up lasting, and the rest just say "Screw you"
And boo-hoo; I'm sad, you can see that I'm cryin'
I'm sorry, but FIFA YouTube is dyin'

FIFA is dead, man, rest in peace
The death of FIFA is the death of me
Price caps and coin sellers was the enemy
But it's too late to go back to what it's meant to be
And FIFA's dead, man, rest in peace
The death of FIFA is the death of me
Price caps and coin sellers was the enemy
But it's too late to go back to what it's meant to be

In FIFA 14, we noticed a new promotion
One at the start of every video uploaded
That was when Gofifacoins and UFIFA
Created a new FIFA with coin-buying as their most used feature
We saw the market startin' to pardon
[?] harder and harder as we moved farther and farther
They became aware of it and they were scared of it
And wouldn't do anything to take care of it
Tried banning people, that didn't work
They tried removing trade offers? How is that gonna hurt?
Well, shit, they got their asses back to their searchin'
All of a sudden, lashed back and attacked with the worst
Price caps, when they brought it in, no one knew what was happenin'
F.M.L. and W.T.F. was the acronym
Players weren't sellin', people lost out on millions
They were all makin' videos sayin' how it's ridiculous
People were losin' interest and little kids were finished with
The game being limited, no one know how to figure it out
And coin-buying ended, didn't it?
Nope, it just persisted with the broken game and nobody can fix it, bitch

FIFA is dead, man, rest in peace

The death of FIFA is the death of me
Price caps and coin sellers was the enemy
But it's too late to go back to what it's meant to be
And FIFA's dead, man, rest in peace
The death of FIFA is the death of me
Price caps and coin sellers was the enemy
But it's too late to go back to what it's meant to be
