Hell No

Quadeca

Limitless the minute it finishes
I'm livin' when it [?] chillin' and feeling rich
I'm only 14 floppy on my innocence vivid and bitchiness overpowers me in a s ense
I see visions, previsions of the future
Can't sit back with no decisions like I used to
I used to sit at my computer, still do the same thing but now I'm the produc er
And now I'm building my own audience
Almost One-Hundred-Thousand, started out with nothing
And now we just climbed a mountain
Like how can that happen? It's a pure dream
Something that I can hardly imagine
I'm part of the magic
The art of the passion is something so rare
Man it's hard to go grasp it
But you know I've accomplished it
Just look at the numbers and stare in astonishment

Recently I'm living with the same familiar feeling
That I've been living in a movie and I'm thinking that I'm dreaming
Now I feel like I am screaming when I'm seeing all these seasons
But believe in what I'm breathing cause know now I will achieve it

Hell no, hell no
I said no to the people 'round me
Hell no, hell no
None of y'all know nothing 'bout me
Oh no, oh no
I'm feeling the rhythm in the down beat
So low
I'm so low
Opportunity is up and around me

I feel blessed but I'm a demon
I guess that is the reason that success is why I'm leaving normal life that ain't appealing
But you know I'm never stealing, I am playing by the rules
Cause I made them up and using them to make it past my school
I'm complaisant when I'm facing, I embrace against the clock
My motto is I'll keep on grindin' till I make it never stop
And I'm taking on a lot
And I feel like I can do it
Cause I made this beat my self
I just keep on makin' improvements

It's so weird to think, once things were all clear to me
I'd never tried to question what they would appear to be
But that's a losers game, the game of life is such a confusing thing
Most of its clues can never soothe the pain
They just look at each-other and do the same
But I'ma take a different path, If it means I go broke I will live with that
To reach the top, man, I'm in for that
When I take this shit I won't give it back
I got an odd mentality, sometimes I think that life is really not reality
Success's definition hasn't got morality it's just Money money money

On the salary
Sometimes I feel like I have lost my sanity
Searching through my mind all across humanity
But I got my family and I have got my health
I got everything I'd ever need but I haven't got myself
I've got to ask myself, Why am I after this?
Happiness out ways the risk of the tragicness
So I know its a gamble I'm making a wish and I'm blowing the candles

Hell no, hell no
I said no to the people 'round me
Hell no, hell no
None of y'all know nothing 'bout me
Oh no, oh no
I'm feeling the rhythm in the down beat
So low
I'm so low
Opportunity is up and around me
