

Sittin' alone at 3AM
Chillin' on a late night is the weekday's friend
Man this shit is too wild, I must "behave Ben"
That's what the teachers are preaching to me but even when
I'm on the top of this rock and I'm rocking the world
With confidence, accomplishments topplin' everyone and you try stoppin' it?
It's obvious there's a problem
And solvin' it just ain't up to me
Luckily, I've been trained to test this system
Don't you fuck with me
I hope you like my company
I hope you do appreciate it
I hope that one day you'll see we made it
No, you cannot recreate it
All of this pain I just alleviated
I'm just trying to find the mindset
Grinding to be the greatest
That is why I'm striving
Livin', tryin', I'm buyin'
Givin' dignity cryin'
I'm winnin' but feel like dyin'
I'm shining, I'm like a diamond
But I am dead on the inside
I guessin' now we'll rest with this
But set it on my big minds

And they say that I'm in time
But I keep on workin' all my life, get that in line
I'm tryna figure out, everyone get their pictures out
Nobody's gonna live without this shit on the incline
I'm on the incline, I'm on the incline
Stay in your lane, you got your place and I'm in mine
I'm on the incline, bitch, I'm on the incline
Nobody can really understand how my shit climb

Have I been livin' yet
Spendin' time on the internet
I'm wastin', they hatin' it, I should be makin' it
Aimin' for goals but takin' this shit instead
I stay in bed
Laughin' at stupid shit
Ludicrous, who is this 10-year-old [?] with two new kids?
Why am I doing this?
Why the fuck do I care? (I don't)
But I kinda do
I don't know what I try to do
But whatever it is to say bye to you
Hey me, I lied to you
Don't realize?
Well it's time you do
You have no idea what I can do
When the skies are gray you gotta fuckin' blue
You gotta try to do
Something to put you into a new positive mindset
Set headlines, go wreck lines
Pass deadlines, leave lines dead
And I guess that I digress

And I digest the way I'm blessed
You're impressed after I'm pressed
You seek intent for what I said
But I'm just gonna move on
Get your groove on for my new song
I do writing you do long
Got a big head, Jimmy Neutron
You try to hate, get in line
I just delivered some quick rhymes
Some straight bars
We have came far
But we lookin' up on the incline

And they say that I'm in time
But I keep on workin' all my life, get that in line
I'm tryna figure out, everyone get their pictures out
Nobody's gonna live without this shit on the incline
I'm on the incline, I'm on the incline
Stay in your lane, you got your place and I'm in mine
I'm on the incline, bitch, I'm on the incline
Nobody can really understand how my shit climb
