

Only Just Met Her

Quadecca

I said, I'm married to the game, but I only just met her Hopin' that my shit get better, but I'm just gonna'
Move with it, ride with it
It's my life, the only burden is the time limit
Fuck it, I'm livin', I said, fuck it, I'm livin'
People are getting mad, just because, yeah, I'm winnin'
Just because, yeah, I'm winnin', they're stuck-up, and I get it
Just because your life sucks, stop corrupting mine with it
Aye, aye
Oh, oh
Said, I'm married to the game, I'm married to the game
Said, I'm married to the game, but I only just met her

Yeah, time to move on, grindin' out all my new songs
Only motivation is people I need to prove wrong
Yeah
Said, my only motivation is- yeah
And, how am I meant to keep my workflow up?
If a girl shows up, all my world blows up
I'm just sittin' and waitin', instead of becomin' the greatest Tryna' find a brand new motherfuckin' deal
All you bitches fake, all my numbers real
All my shit is punchin' in my stomach, like a meal
Am I married to the game if I can't afford a ring?
It's all very much the same, if I can't afford to sing
Man, it's scary for a king, even-, I said, it's scary for a king, even
They call me odd, but I bring even
I bring reason to believe in it
Even [?] for [?]
The meaning is really scenin'
No line can be wrong between em'
I don't show seasons, I am me, no matter what
And that can grow pleasin', I'm barely close to anybody
I don't know people, man, I don't know people who so equal
I don't ([?]) know nobody who doesn't own evil
Man, that it just a truth and a lie
A truth and a lie, somethin' like the blue in the sky
Or a suit and a tie, I'm [?] to the life, I'm [?] in my mind
New to the time, man, I'm like the proof in disguise
And I'm- lookin' at all of this shit (I got so much time, so much time)
Oh, you should know I'm not fallin' for this (I got-)
You get 'scouraged for one minute (So much time, so much time)
The next minute, you be callin' it quits (I got-)
And I'll probably get rich If I focus enough (So much time, so much time)
You close-minded, let's open it up (I got-)
And all of these people assumin' 'bout what I be doin' (So much time left fo r me)
But they do not know what is up (Aye!)
And I just wish- that they would fucking go away (I've got so much time, so much time, I've got-)
And I won't obey, no I will- never ever show the way (So much time, so much time, I've got-)
And I will try to mask it up with other jokes on fucking jokes (So much time
, so much time, I've got-) Always playin' G', but now I'm movin' onto other notes, yeah (So much time, so much time)
