

PRETTY PRIVILEGE

Quadeca

Why did you say I was pretty?
I wanna know what you mean
If I was really so pretty
I wouldn't want to be seen

I'm coming to your city
I'd do a lot to be fine
'Cause when you said I was pretty
All I could ask you was "why"

Do you notice something new?
I did my hair with a twist just for you

I'm the only one still home and it hits me
I'm the baddest bitch west of the Mississippi
I could go out but I really wouldn't know what to do
When everybody tells me I'm so lucky to be loved by you

Lucky me, you looked at me like you just noticed something new I'm sucking in my stomach just to hug you like you want me to Uh, like you want
You want me to

Why did you say I was pretty?
I'm pretty sure that's a lie
'Cause when you said I was pretty
All I could ask you was "why"

Do you notice something new?
I did my hair with a twist just for you
