

Rainy Day

Quadeca

So many memories
Do you remember these
Moments way back in the time
Trapped in the back of my mind
I am so happy to grind
I am so happy to find
So much experience now that I'm passing the line
Now that I'm grasping the signs
I have been laughing a lot, got nothing to hide
No, I've got nothing to hide
Bitch, I am stuck left behind
I need a drive
Yeah, I need something to ride
Fill my own bank account, shit that I'm making now
Put it all off to the side
Feeling the vibe
Got this new sorrowful happiness that I just can't seem to guide
Feeling alive
Yes, I am breathing the air and I'm feeling so careless but I can't Let go
Every morning I wake up I'm wanting to drop out
But I can't stop now
You know I put too much work into this shit just to pop out
So I walk down five different paths every day
Just need the one
It's only begun
No, I'm not going away
No, I'm not going to say
That this shit is going badly at all, I'm glad that I fall
I love the ref, but I ain't mad at the call
I'm mad at the call
Yeah, I'm having it all
I'm traveling far, I'm practicing hard
Never going back to the start
Never going back to the start

Yeah
Do you believe in miracles?
Shit's spiritual to me
Give a fuck about material
So mystical to see
And I've been trying to learn this shit
It's worthless shit to you
All I know is that I've earned this shit
It's working with my view

You should know that I'm putting my work on the table
No, I am so able
I'm lining these cables
Have the horsepower but tied to the stables
Get by with no label
I do the mixing and mastering, writing and rapping and making it happen
I'm eating my cake and I'm having it
Real emotion, I'm tapping it
Passionate, and I am working my hardest
It's already started
Yes, I am being an artist

I'm feeling the largest
Yeah, that's just me
Uh, I hope you agree

Rainy day, rainy day, chilling 'til it fade away
Bass low with the 808
Cali in a great estate
Gotta make a case
Running base to base
Standing face to face
This the great escape
But I'll make a change, it'll stay the same
I'll take the blame on this rainy day
Let them all fall, let them all call
Let them all call
Let them all fall
Fall
