

This people try to figure out who my songs about Oxygen something that i can't last very long without
Water and some celter
I got to get something stronger now
Someone I can't see my self without
That's what it's all about
And if it's healthy to argue
Then I'll be unhealthy
Shit ain't but materialisticly
Is it unwealthy
I've been star struck
Someone please come help me
This rust must become felt between us
And this one selfie
Yeah

And if you really knew how I feel about you
I'm pretty sure
I wouldn't need to ask you
Wouldn't even have to
I've got every thing that i need to have you
Oh ohh

And every night been dreaming bout you
Been thinking bout you
Found meaning
Now you're my oxygen
Can't breathe without you
Oh ohh

Inevitably, well i don't know
I pray it ain't me but
I'm not sure
Oh ohh, oh ohh, oh ohh
I'm not sure
Oh

As soon I saw you
As soon as you saw me
We just couldn't take it slow
Sam Smith is talking about
Perfect imperfections
That shit is never relatable
Tell me what ya waiting for
Let's hop on a plane
To an island
And take a vacation
So maybe we go somewhere
Only our imaginations know

Shit is cliché as fuck
But it's part of the beauty
Hours and hours that you're talking to me
That shit is the best
From all of the sarcasm
Saying it truly

You know that we'll live in a mansion one day
But sometimes these obstacles stand in the way
But I know that
I that see
The sparks that be flying
I cannot deny them
They randomly say
What if we die down
What if we stop tryna talk every night now
What if it just wants to feel
Like there is no incentive
For us to be spending the time now
That shit is my biggest fear

What if the feeling we have for each other
Ain't mutual
What if you see me as meh
And I see you as beautiful
See me as great
And I think your delusional
Yet a piece that can make me
But without that piece you can break me
Sounding obsessive as fuck
But these late night thoughts
Don't prestrait what I'm saying
I could be looking at you in some silence
And you get that shit like a deep conversation
That shit is amazing

No exaggeration
Yeah

And if you really knew how I feel about you
I'm pretty sure
I wouldn't need to ask you
Wouldn't even have to
Oh ohh

And every night been dreaming bout you
Been thinking bout you
Found meaning
Now you're my oxygen
Oh ohh

If you really knew how I feel about you
I'm pretty sure
I wouldn't need to ask you
Wouldn't even have to
Oh ohh

And every night been dreaming bout you
Found meaning
Now you're my oxygen
Oh ohh

Inevitably, well i don't know
I pray it ain't me but
I'm not sure

Oh ohh, oh ohh, oh ohh
I'm not sure
