

All of these people keep on changin'
All of these time and different phases
All of these lights all know the stages
All of these sights is so amazing
I've seen at least a million faces
A million times, a million places
But when it's all said and done I look and I wonder why, oh

Everyone knows that it's so amazing
All the support is my motivation
Compare to all the big people at the capital
My name is spelt in lower cases
People loved me before I made it
People liked it before they watched it I'm on a way to much more than I have
And I'm glad because now I will never stop it
Man on a mission and I got a vision of talking a lot of wisdom
And I gotta listen, gotta follow and be a leader
And tomorrow I'll be the teacher when they need the feature
Got flow and it's so damn crazy people consider me so amazing
I'm holding control and then folding those verses
I'm hurt because I'm on loaded bases
Advancing
I know the basics already know them they're overrated than me
Wow
I am not rated at all so we hoping because now I am open for ga me
And I'm charged up, I ain't Drake but I'm onda
Worst behavior so many people they know the plays
Don't know the game and don't know the makers don't know the fa kers
But who cares I'm not here to cater I'm here to improve and sho w that I'm greater
I'm here to go move and just go on the layers
And bitch I am going to later
I got time my own lyrics I got mime and I'm on time for the wro ng line but I'm not crying so let's start grinding, let's go

All of these people keep on changin'
All of these time and different phases
All of these lights all know the stages
All of these sights is so amazing
