Quadeca

We swimmin', got our whole entire squad now
Man, we about to win it
Said, we swimmin', no time till you fall out
Bottom of the last inning
Said, we swimmin', damn, we about to ball out
It's the life that I'm livin'
Life that I'm livin', not sure who to call now
Check with the verse and let's see what it's all 'bout
Swimmin'

We gettin' bitches, not women
We gettin' hit the minimum [?], and we track back
And I'm listenin', isn't it just
Dodgin' my bullet? Quick duck, like you Aflac
You half-ass, when I rap fast
Thinkin' of that as, "Whatever"
But come to the stage, stop runnin' away
Man, I'm ready for you to get better (Go)
I gotta ace tests and make paychecks
And put it all on my plate
And, I'm great, blessed, with how [?]
[?] so start to get on the plane
I'm left in my lane, obsessed with my brain
I guess I'm insane, I'm repping the game
Forgetting my gains, no I ain't wet in the rain
No, I'm the best in the sun, and best for my age

We swimmin', got our whole entire squad now
Man, we about to win it
Said, we swimmin', no time till you fall out
Bottom of the last inning
Said, we swimmin', damn, we about to ball out
It's the life that I'm livin'
Life that I'm livin', not sure who to call now

Swimmin'

I'm a different incident
It's ridiculous sometimes that I see me on t.v
Or in 3D (None!)
Imagine myself in retweets, shall we see these (Ones)
It's been like 10 minutes, shit is too easy, son
But dad says I look like E.T., but-
Please, believe me, this shit is freaky
And it is too creepy, [?]
I've been servin' it up, like it's dinner
I've been makin' that paper, you stuck like a printer
You run out of money, tough luck is a pity
But really, you suck, I don't fuck with beginners
Runnin' the city, but really, I'm not
All these girls they say, "[?] and [?], they hot"
But I nearly forgot that I'm killin' my spot
And I clearly do not wanna get on the block
If it were in the thought that my lyrics were hot
They don't wanna acknowledge it, they don't wanna acknowledge it
That your boy is astonishin'
Lackin' the confidence, but I be packin' the obvious

Lost in the drop of the rap with an audience
In the back of the promises
Happens to constantly wanna be over
And honestly, it is just (Yeah) rackin' in dominance

And I know, and I'm tellin' y'all that I know
I don't ever want it
Don't ever want it
So many people don't ever want it, oh no
Let me tell you I got so many things
And so many places to go
If you ever want it, don't ever stop it
Don't get up off of your [?]

Yeah, we swimmin', got our whole entire squad now
Man, we about to win it
Said, we swimmin', no time till you fall out
Bottom of the last inning
Said, we swimmin', damn, we about to ball out
It's the life that I'm livin'
