

The Stolen Flow Experiment

Quadeca

I know that you're out there
Out there, and all I gotta do is find you
They don't wanna hear my sound there (Sound there)
I just gotta remind you
I knew so many things
That I hadn't known before
Open up while I close the door
Man, it's blowing up while I own the floor, and I know

Every day, I be showing up on a laptop
[?] to another, and I know
I've been dreaming about getting on stage
Perhaps I am doing something
And I know I'll be working hard
Man, I'm sure when the purpose large, I've got words to start burning art
Man, I'm sure I'm not perfect, not worth it
But, surely you heard the part, man, these girls are smart
Way smarter than you think, man
Already washed you out of your sink, man
Already got a doubt for your thing, man
I know it, I notice this shit, [?] it all through a blink, man
You can't do it? Well, he can!
Who's 'he', then? Her imaginary friend!
That different TV, then
Who ain't real, he's pretend!
With a script written nine times, and drafted, and acted, and edited
Rapped it in magic, and that's the man that you can never imagine
And it is not happening
Unless you one and 800 and thousand
How long you wanna wait for?
Your whole life hundred years, no date, though
Ha, it's just the truth of reality
It's a useful mentality, shit, I got moves coming after me
In my day, like an old person
This life got me soul-searching
I'm on higher heels, but my soles hurting
Shit, that's a good pun, good one, think it's time that we should run
Yeah, yeah, we running for president
Of shitty raps, so don't ever forget it, bitch
We just be getting it until we relevant
Let it in, never get stressed with the Benjamin (Ooh, yeah)

I know that you're out there
Out there, and all I gotta do is find you
They don't wanna hear my sound there (Sound there)
I just gotta remind you (Aye!)
I knew so many things
That I hadn't known before
Open up while I close the door
Man, it's blowing up while I own the floor, and I know

I know that you're out there
Out there, and all I gotta do is find you
They don't wanna hear my sound there (Sound there)
I just gotta remind you (Aye!)
I knew so many things
That I hadn't known before

Open up while I close the door
Man, it's blowing up while I own the floor, and I know
