Hahaha! You hear that? I'm just fuckin' laughing at this beat

I take this shit from the highest league
You could never be as high as me
No I ain't never been to college but I got that flow that comes right out the Ivy League
She wasn't religious, but she came to kick it and now she be telling me "I believe"
I got a vision they catch with precision, I'm driven as far as the eyes can see
Okay I'm independent they can't fire me
That's why I stay fire, see?
All of these rappers they wanna be friends
But I treat em all like a rivalry
Shitting on you can I please get some privacy?
I'm killing you quietly
I overtook everybody who said that I wouldn't be shit, like ain't that some irony?
Made 20 racks this January
Ice in my cream that's Ben and Jerry's
Nobody liking the way that I work they say "Blood sweat and tears that ain't sanitary!"
My music is planetary
Your music a cemetery, ay
Just take a look at the jeans (genes) guess it's hereditary ay, yuh

Back on my mufuckin shit uh huh
I got a lotta new drip yuh
Just take a look at my fit uh huh
Look at my fit yeah
You riding my wave like a ship uh huh
I live my life like a movie huh, you live your live like a clip hahaha

Okay, literally and figuratively, I'm on
Listen to me, a picture with me? I charge
Ripping a beat, a mil in a week, I'm gone
Did a million tweets, and then it repeats, so long
Did a lot but I'm not even 21
I'm not anyone
Why these bitches wanna battle? I already won
I ain't even medicated, my music is medicine
In the headlights you looking like venison, better run yuh
This shit too easy for me
Here take my CD for free
Look at the TV, it's me
How he got zero co-signs but he going mainstream with his streams?
Sleeping on me like Z Z Z Z
Who's next up? Well it's easy to see
They don't wanna make a track featuring me
Cause it sound like they're featured on me me me me (me me huh?)

Back on my mu'fuckin shit uh huh
I got a lotta new drip yuh
Just take a look at my fit uh huh
Look at my fit yeah
You riding my wave like a ship uh huh

Nah I'll check the price later (okay?)

I feel like a star and I'm going to war, please get me a lightsaber, huh

If it ain't blue? (uh then what?) then it ain't the right paper (oh)

I feel like a man with the heart of a murderer

Life is a road so I cop a convertible

I am so versatile

You are so plain (plane) that shit terminal

I had to make my name search-able bitch

They do not want it to work for the kid

Then when it work they gone work for the kid

Every move I'm on purpose with shit

That's my purpose I'm certainly certain it is
