Unscripted

Quadeca

Yeah it's really me
Playing in the league
I haven't seen you ballin'
I just see you falling
How it really be
I am off the script
You can't hold me back
I'm independent
Do the mixing
And the selling
I control my path
Getting it online
Don't care if the money ain't on time
These artists ain't really artists
If they care about the bling more than the hotline
Yeah
I am off the script
I am off the script
Remembers to my voice
This shit is my choice
Damn I got away

No I ain't a bird in the trap
Working like that
But I have been searching the map
Trying to find another fucking person that raps perfectly fast
With beats that's certain to slap
If you know about the way I work on the track
Then you know that I will always finish first that's a fact
Everybody laughed when they heard that I rapped
Until they heard me rap and confirmed that I'm stacked

Fuck the bay I'll put Earth on the map

Got the highest numbers like the nerd in your class
I'm the only one that's coming in and curving the stats
The words that I craft come in first 'cus I'm mad
I've made mistakes but at least I learn from my past
Play the song your headphones turn into ash
That's what happens when I'm burning the track
It like rappers who submurged under mass
Or who look for validation from the shirts on their backs
Friend accuse me of spending stacks on clothes, but the shit that they was w earing was worth more, in fact
Ain't that a blessing
I earned all this crap
So now, I like to flex in reverse like an ass
Running circles and laugh
All these rap clowns think they in the circus or act
It's absurd and it's trash
But I'm sure that it hurts to be served
And this crack and cus I'm coming up to get it
I ain't turning it back

Uh

Yeah it's really me

Playing in the league
I am off the script
If they care about the bling more than the hotline
I am off the script
I am off the script
