

WHAT'S IT TO HIM?

Quadeca

Take a look
You'll see just what it took to find you
Don't be surprised
I shouted from the sides, "Behind you!"
I wish I could remind you
I wish I could
And what's it to him?

It's the light in a room with a multicolored ceiling
It's the white on the shoes with the multicolored creasing
It's the slight bit of truth with a multicolored meaning ah

I'd like to hide a little less
I'd like to cry a little more
If I was happy you'd know why
I'd risk it all just to make sure

And what's it to him?
It's the light in a room with the multicolored ceiling
It's the white on the shoes with the multicolored creases
It's the slight bit of truth with the multicolored meaning ah

I'd like to hide a little less
I'd like to cry a little more
If I was happy you'd know why
I'd risk it all just to make sure

I'd like to hide a little less
(It's the light in the sky it's the multicolored ceiling)
I'd like to cry a little more
(It's the white little lie with the multicolored meaning
It's the light in the sky
It's the multicolored ceiling)
If I was happy you'd know why
(It's the white in the sky, it's the multicolored meaning)
(It's the white, it's the, it's the multicolored ceiling
It's the white little lie, it's the multicolored meaning)
I'd risk it all just to make sure
