Wonderful

Quadeca

Decicco
Aye, Decicco, what up my nigga?

They don't know, they don't know 'bout what I do
I ain't anti-social, I just don't like you
Ask me how it's goin', I say "wonderful"
They tell me "settle down," they too comfortable
And man they really used to love me now I'm feared
That's what happens when they see the clout appear
Ask me 'bout my job, I got multiple
Got blue hundreds damn them shits so colorful

Don't think I've ever seen so much money, so little talent
These rapper's shows look like lipsync battles with Jimmy Fallon
What really happened? I'm jealous if people sellin' platinum Worst year of my life, that's like saying the worst Kendrick al bum
It's way better than average, I'm already established Unforgettable, classic, y'all shit is set to go plastic They wanna see me disappear like incredible magic Your regrettable attitude is upsetting my passion
Yeah, I'm getting listens and plays
Fuck all the simpler days
I just took a 2-month break and got Spotify paying me minimum w age

I'm like, that's good enough
Man, I been eating, ain't full enough
I just wanna make it pullin' up
I been puttin' up with all these amateurs
Sure enough, Imma show 'em how it should be done (yeah)

They don't know, they don't know 'bout what I do
I ain't anti-social, I just don't like you
Ask me how it's goin', I say "wonderful"
They tell me "settle down," they too comfortable
And then they really used to love me now I'm fear
That's what happens when they see the cloud up here
Ask me 'bout my job, I got multiple
Got blue hundreds and them shits so colorful
