

Defense

quannnic

Stop defending your blood
Wish I could say too much
But I could only put on a show
I would stay in another room, you're never home
See the years chip away, and chip away

But you drive, and drive, and drive
And I'll carry on as usual
It would cost me to live
And I'll carry on as usual

But you drive, and drive, and drive
And I'll carry on as usual
It would cost me to live
