

Staving damage
Worthless hospital gown
Feeling a savior
Turning upside down

Swinging from the wire, higher, higher
Telling war stories to the two way mirror
Fucking up my knuckles just to prove something
Everybody does it just to prove something
Everybody wins just to lose something

Sheeple step in
Preaching nothing but sounds
Sit up to speak and
They turn it around

Swinging from the wire, higher, higher
Telling war stories to the two way mirror
Fucking up my knuckles just to prove something
Everybody does it just to prove something
Everybody wins just to lose something
Swinging from the wire, higher, higher
Telling war stories to the two way mirror
Fucking up my knuckles just to prove something
Everybody does it just to prove something
Everybody wins just to lose something

(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
(Everybody does it just to prove something)
(Everybody wins just to lose something)
