

Love Should Be So Kind

Quarterflash

You could have picked a better time
What's it gonna do, what's it gonna prove
To steal from one so blind?
Oh, love should be so kind

Love is easier to give at night
Nothing's in the light, nothing in a sight
Reveals the thief we hide
Oh, love should be so kind

I felt this darkness
Over and over and over again

Around your heart
I felt its sharpness
Cutting and hiding the fears I've been trying
To bring to the light

You couldve picked a better time
What it's gonna do, what's it gonna prove
To steal from one so blind?
Oh, love should be so kind

Oh, love should be so kind
