Five Seconds

Queen Naija

One, two, three, four, five, yeah
'Bout to lose my mind
I'm for real this time (Time, time)

Yeah, I know too many times I've said the same thing before
And I know too many times I've said I'd walk out the door (Ooh yeah)
And I know way too many times I said I was sure
But I couldn't be more right
Said I couldn't be more, oh
It ain't fair how you got me
Goin' up and down on your rollercoaster
Really startin' to feel like it's over
Got no problem givin' cold shoulder
We could end it right here
Feel like I can't stay another night here
Finna blow my head with the silence
Let me step away, feelin' balance

One, two, three, four, five
Tension risin' high
'Bout to lose my mind
You done crossed the line for the last time
One, two, three, four, five
I'm for real this time (Yeah)
No, we can't rewind (Can't rewind)
Niggas love wastin' our time (Yeah)

Lately we've been wastin' time (Yeah)
This ain't how we used to vibe (Nah, nah)
Arguin', fussin' and fightin' (Yeah)
Up in the middle of the night (Yeah)
Tryna bring the good to the light (Right)
We ain't makin' love, I'm goin' crazy (Uh)
You're next to me but I'm feelin' lonely (Lonely)
I gotta find my way back to you (To you)
Oh, what I gotta do to fix your attitude, baby? (Attitude)
The problems we facin'
Should be small for you, they're small for me
Don't fuck this up (Don't)
Don't want you to leave (Nah)
Let's get it right (Right)
Just you and me (Come on)
I was frontin' on the low (Uh-huh)
Here come your exes and hoes (Your exes and hoes)
You got my mind in control (Control)
I need your body and soul, for life

One, two, three, four, five
Tension risin' high
'Bout to lose my mind
You done crossed the line for the last time
One, two, three, four, five (Four, five)
I'm for real this time (For real this time)
No, we can't rewind (Rewind)
Niggas love wastin' our time
