

My Mind

Queen Naija

You blow my mind
You could never be no side piece
You're mine
All mine
You blow my mind
You blow my mind
You could never be no side piece
You're mine
All mine

Back seat, Double R me
One ring when you call me
Black tint, but you saw me
You still holding on to the flawed me
Flower scent, I'm a sick romantic
Confident that this shit organic
Obvious that you might can't stand it
But it went better than we planned it

You blow my mind
You could never be no side piece
You're mine
All mine
You blow my mind
You blow my mind
You could never be no side piece
You're mine
All mine

Sound good, feel right
But every new love, I get feeling so high
You know I be having mood swings
Will you love me the same?
I'm paranoid with a chrome heart
Somehow, boy, you gon' get my guard down
Bossed up, a lot to handle
You gon' make your wife, that what a man do
Way too grown to just be playing
Can you stand on what you saying?
Don't need no more situations
If it's real, share your location

You blow my mind
You could never be no side piece
You're mine
All mine
You blow my mind
You blow my mind
You could never be no side piece
You're mine
All mine
